For more information, to book a space or join the relevant waiting list, please email Lauren Shannon on: littleacornsoffice268@gmail.com stating your school, the class you want to attend and your child's year group. For more information about Little Acorns and the classes we offer – including private LAMDA, singing and music theory lessons please visit our website www.littleacornstheatreacademy.com or like us on Facebook (Little Acorns Theatre Academy) or call Lauren Shannon on 07943141238.

Little Acorns Drama classes consist of storytelling, and various improvisations to stimulate children's imagination and creativity. Children focus on expanding their vocabulary and memory skills through various activities in each session, building confidence, aiding communication skills and developing expression. Little Acorns Music and Drama classes consist of learning lyrics and routines to current pop and music theatre songs, focusing on developing their rhythm, intonation and co-ordination skills, confidence building and conveying different emotions whilst singing.
